Types of Documents Accepted for the Affordable Connectivity Program

This guide identifies the documents you can submit to show that you qualify for the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP).

- Please make sure all of your documents are current. We CANNOT accept expired documentation.
- Send copies or pictures of your original, valid document. NEVER send the original document.

If you applied to the ACP because your dependent is a Benefit Qualifying Person (BQP) (someone who participates in an ACP qualifying program), make sure all of the documents, such as a Medicaid benefit letter, Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) documentation, Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) school enrollment documentation, or proof of participation in the Free and Reduced Price School Lunch Program or School Breakfast Program have their name where appropriate.

Visit ACPbenefit.org for more information on Documents Needed.
